President's Message

HAPPY NEW YEAR, EVERYONE!!!

I love throwing out my old resolutions and making new ones...and the reflective process on whether I actually KEPT any of the old resolutions. As I look back at last year, I think I did pretty well: MUCH lace got made and the patterns and pictures for a Chrysanthemum book (to be published in January) got done. I also took responsibility for some things I had been avoiding and tried to stay true to what I really enjoy doing. This year, owing to a fine Christmas gift of baking items from my kids, I instituted a restructuring and winnowing of my kitchen storage. OMG, I had no idea how many baking tools I have! So, we are much more organized now and I can actually USE the baking tools. The frenzy lapped over onto other cooking items and as a result some under-used tools have gone bye-bye. Nice. I really don't need two slow-cookers, a rice cooker AND an Instant Pot...

I think this organizing frenzy is going to stay awhile; I feel it wanting to get to my fabric stash even as I speak...I'll keep you updated. I might try lap quilting.... I guess this is an official Resolution: #2 Organize It, Use It Up, right after #1, Make Lace Every Day!

Speaking of making lace every day, I'm almost finished with the tablecloth edging that I've been doing only at work...for the last 2 ½ years! It's still on the pillow, but I think I have enough. I've begun sewing it onto the tablecloth to see if I have to make any more or not. Soon you'll see it.

Oh, and maybe Resolution #3 should be: Finish Those Darn UFOs! Empty those pillows!

Yours frenetically,

Sylvia

Don't forget to wear your name tag!

Minutes

Freeway Lace Guild Minutes of Dec 7, 2019

Meeting was called to order at 10:30 AM by Sylvia Fellows with Maria Provencher volunteering to take the minutes.

Mr. Bill is having several issues related to Health, Fridge, and his washer. Send him a quick note if you can.

Treasurer Report: Louise R. our treasurer accidentally used the Debit Card of the Freeway lace guild for personal use in the amount of $25 and is replacing that with a personal check. Additionally she used her personal card to pay for the lunches at Lace day in the amount of $252.25 so she need to be paid for the this. A motion was made by Francesca and Seconded by Susan Trezek that we write a check for $252.25 to cover the lunch. Motion carried unanimously. We made $575.20 on Lace Day in large part because of the consignment donations and there is a $45 left to deposit. Balance in our account is $9,156.69.

It was moved by Francesca and seconded by Caitlyn that we give one month's rent donation to the Church as we have done in the past. The motion carried unanimously. We embraced our diversity of Religions and it was suggested that we make a design for a piece of lace that includes all of our religious symbols.

Website Report: Caitlyn Ference-Saunders is our new Website person and the website is now built but private for now and we need to get the transfer of the name to the new site and that is being worked on. Caitlyn asked that in January we bring our favorite lace pieces for photographing so that we can add them to the website if we like. Caitlyn's husband will bring a good camera for photos and we would also like to photograph the officers. In addition Past Presidents will be included and if not living locally can send in a photo. Caitlyn made a motion that we adopt a new website with a $140 starting fee per year and we may need to pay more for the domain in the amount of $10-$20 so that the domain can be transferred. Rose seconded the motion and it carried unanimously

Membership - Francesca collected the dues for Julia and dues are now due

Programs - January will be a tape lace heart with Julia that comes from the Julianna Magazine which she donates to the library. February- Bill will presenting crochet mats. March will be a Jana Novak Chick in tape Lace and she used Linen but 40 lizabeth would work too. A discussion of other future programs came after and Francesca will get that all sorted out and published as best we can.

Library - We have some new books - Basic and advanced needlelace booklets by the Lace Guild, a new Hardanger book, one on Kumihimo, and so several bobbin Lace ones (Fiandra, Hearts, UFO's, and a Baubles book)

The meeting was adjourned at 11:20 with a motion by Susan Trezek and a second by Rose.

We reopened the meeting at 11:35 to form a nominating committee for Officers for the years 2020 and 2021. The Vote will take place at the January meeting. Sylvia Fellows appointed Maria Provencher, Susan Trezek, and Rose Wilson to be the committee. The meeting was re adjourned at 11:45.

Nominating committee report.
