President's Message

My Dear Lacers:

At last, I'll be able to be back with you all this month! I missed you! Many waters went under the bridge and many fine events have happened, but it's nice to be back to semi-normal. Winter Lace Conference was wonderful and I really enjoyed going up to The Lace Museum in January, even though it was raining....beautiful green hills.

This month I will be teaching two ornament decorations in bobbin lace that are designed to go over a glass ball. Francesca is very kindly providing the glass balls for us – all you need to bring is your pillow, lots o' bobbins, and thread. The thread for the green ornament is Guttermann silk sewing thread; you'll need 2 spools. You'll need 30 pairs of bobbins to avoid sewings. If you want to put in beads, you'll need 36 Size 8 seed bead, also a bigger bead with a big hole to finish the tassel. The small beads are an optional extra and don't have to be put in.

The red ornament is size 80 tatting thread. You'll need 12 pairs of bobbins.

I am working on a Christmas ornament lace design to be put on a glass ball which I'll be teaching you in March...giving you plenty of time to get one (or maybe more) done by Christmas, I hope. We should have a grand display at our Christmas party this year.....

With lacey lovingness,

Sylvia

Minutes

Doors opened at 9:30 a.m.

No meeting was able to be conducted due to the fact that there was no Quorum. Only One Elected Board Member was in Attendance. Total Attendance was 7 individuals.

It was very cold and we could not find where to turn the heat on. Perhaps this information could be passed to a couple of members next meeting!

A 'Sign-Up' sheet was provided for those that wanted to demonstrate at the Homestead Museum Victorian Fair. It will be held the weekend of April 27 and 28, 2019 from 1-5 p.m. Period dress (Victorian) is preferred. Contact William McConnell (traumadr@verizon.net) if you need help with planning how to dress for this Event. Those that signed up for this demonstration so far include: Louise Rozansky, Lydia Gonzalez, Caitlyn Ference-Saunders, William W. McConnell.

A .PDF sign-up sheet is attached for the March 2019 Freeway Newsletter.

Of the 7 individuals that attended the Meeting, 2 took the tatting class, 1 needed help getting started with a Spider piece in bobbin lace. The remainder had projects to work on with minor or no help required.

All that attended the meeting enjoyed themselves and a good time was had by all.

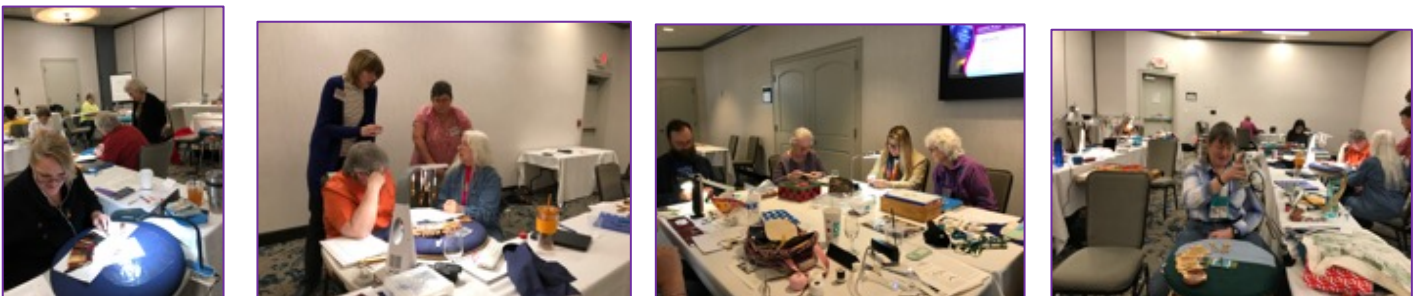

Adjournment was at 3:00 p.m.

Respectfully Submitted by:

William W. McConnell
